

Think Eclectic

Piet Swimberghe & Jan Verlinde

-New book in the 'Think' series. Think Vintage sold almost 10,000 copies

-With personal and informative texts, based on interviews with the inhabitants and the people who created their interiors

-A unique source of inspiration with photos of interiors that have never been published before

The current dominant interior style is surprisingly eclectic. In this book, art collectors, architects, designers and antiquarians mastering this trend, allow us to enter their private spaces. They mix different styles to form a new unity, combining old and new, sleek and baroque. No sterile showrooms are shown here, but real houses, decorated by these creative minds. The eclectic style does not have any rules and underlines the strong individual character of the decorator.

Art historian Piet Swimberghe and photographer Jan Verlinde work for numerous magazines such as Elle Living, Côté Ouest, MTC and Weekend Knack. They have produced books on architecture, design and interiors and written many articles for European interior magazines.

Flamant. Interior Portraits

Flamant

-With contributions by interior architects, decorators and chief editors of Ideat, Vogue, Wallpaper*

-A magnificent coffee table book with a luxurious finishing

-Experience the warm family style of Flamant

The previous Flamant books 'Flamant Style', and 'Home Interiors' sold very well across the world. Flamant is a very well-known and respected brand, with its own stores in Belgium, France, Germany and Italy and dealers worldwide. The warm encounter of the classical and the modern, authenticity and luxury, defines the Flamant signature. Classical forms, natural materials and craftsmanship are combined and form a modern design. This philosophy forms the base of their international recognition and popularity. This prestigious book shows the diversity of styles Flamant has to offer, from classic and rustic to vintage and contemporary city design.

Flamant is one of the most respected Belgian interior companies with a 30 year history. Since 2007 they have continuously been a royal warrant holder for the Belgian royal family.

Crepain Binst Architecture X05 24/24

Contemporary and future contents

Luc Binst

-This is the Architectural Manifest of Luc Binst. It celebrates and showcases 10 years of Crepain Binst Architecture in Antwerp, featuring houses, public spaces, objects, etc.

Crepain Binst Architecture celebrates its tenth birthday with an atypical but impressive book that's an overview of the last decade. It's a mission statement for the future - by the agency but also by the architecture itself.

Everything is architecture. 24/7, discipline determines our lives. That's the message Luc Binst, the CEO of Crepain Binst Architecture, wants to share with the world, with Crepain Binst Architecture X05 24/24.

In 2005, he started his own agency, together with Jo Crepain. Ten years and as many as 550 (!) projects later, Luc looks back and ahead with a 'state of the union' of architecture. He focuses on themes such as durability and interdisciplinarity.

Also available:

Luc Binst is CEO of Crepain Binst Architecture. With his agency, he has received numerous awards, including the prestigious 'Lensvelt de Architect Interieurprijs 2006', for the design of his own home in Humbeek (Belgium).

Elements Europe

The European Council and the Council of the European Union

Jean Attali & Philippe Samyn

-A monograph about the new building for the European Council - a building destined to represent the executive branch of Europe

-A must-have book for every architect and lover of architecture

Philippe Samyn, architect and engineer, created with this building for the European Council an architectural masterpiece. Clever in its entirety and in every detail, in its iconic functions, and in its decorum, it perfectly reflects the aura of power that the 28 members of the European Union share together. In addition to Jean Attali and Philippe Samyn's view on the building phases, this book also includes the overall picture of the project. All the phases of the building process as well as the facilities are dealt with.

Jean Attali, PhD in Philosophy, teaches Urban Development at the Ecole nationale supérieure d'architecture Paris-Malaquais.

Philippe Samyn is a civil engineer, architect and town planner with a PhD in Applied Sciences. He founded Philippe SAMYN & PARTNERS, architects and engineers, in 1980.

- The colouring plates in this book are based on the patterns and designs of Eijffinger. Each coloured plate can be listed. Colouring for adults is a new trend. Eijffinger's wallpaper and fabrics are a landmark in the world of interior design: decorating worlds. The company has selected the best patterns for this book: with themes such as romance, nostalgia, nature, exotism, vintage and retro, you can continuously create another atmosphere. Start colouring and feel the inspiration!
- Dutch designers show what you can do with patterns. This book contains some coloured patterns for inspiration

Founded in 1875 Eijffinger has become an internationally operating converter in wallcoverings and fabrics. Eijffinger started trading in The Hague where interior products such as wallpaper and trimmings were delivered to the upper class. Soon the combination of unique wallpaper designs, reliable service, exceptional quality and broad distribution in Holland resulted into an impressive market share. During the last 135 years Eijffinger has survived world wars, various economic crises and the rise of do-it-yourself markets. Throughout, Eijffinger has continuously developed exclusive and surprising collections which provide a distinct and characteristic interior decoration for each individual. In Eijffinger's own creative studio the best industrial designers develop new wallpaper and fabric collections. Therefore, Eijffinger is leader in the world of interior decor. Eijffinger's creativity and innovation in design, colour and materials has been a major strength, so its products are now available in more than 90 countries.

Osiris Hertman

Ivo Weyel

Osiris Hertman graduated from the Design Academy Eindhoven, having studied under Lidewij Edelkoort. He started his career working for Ulf Moritz and later for Marcel Wanders. His background in product design is reflected in his passion for customizing each project. Osiris is an all-round designer who's been pushing the boundaries of design since he opened his studio in 1997. Over the last 15 years Osiris has proven himself to be an all-round designer. Started as a furniture designer, soon came interiors, home accessories and even hand crafted silver jewelry for the renowned lifestyle brand Buddha to Buddha. His background in product design is reflected in each of his interiors by the great amount of detailing and customized objects. Osiris travels all across the world to find unique and beautiful materials. The major part of all design pieces are made by hand and encapsulate his ideology for elegance, beauty and craftsmanship. Often together with those same craftsmen he creates the customized furniture that makes an Osiris Hertman interior unique.
